

JASH and AMASC

When you graduate from a Sacred Heart school

you belong to the alumnae association of your school

you become a JASH member

you belong to AMASC through JASH

JASH

(Japan Alumnae Association of the Sacred Heart)

an organization that unites 8 alumnae associations of the Sacred Heart schools in Japan

JASH holds JASH Day in March every year in commemoration of the 8th AMASC Congress held in Tokyo in 1986. After the general meeting, there is a tea-break and mini-bazaar. All the participants can enjoy talking with one another.

JASH has 8 registered groups of its members overseas. When you move to one of these districts, notify us, and we will let you know the address of the contact person.

JASH has various types of work in which we would like to ask for your help. Please check our website below! ❖

AMASC

(Association Mondiale des Anciennes et Anciens du Sacre-Coeur)

an organization that unites all the alumnae associations of the Sacred Heart schools in the world

AMASC holds the World Congress once in 4 years. Besides the general assembly and elections, a variety of enjoyable events are provided.

*The merger of Sophia-kai and Miyashiro-kai was reconfirmed at the board meeting of Miyashiro-kai on November 10, 2009.
 **Obayashi Mikokoro-kai and Barat-kai were merged at the general meeting of Obayashi Mikokoro-kai on May 2, 2003.
 ***Marimo-kai has suspended their activity since April 1, 2020.

Barat-kai consists of the graduates of Obayashi Senshuka, Senmon Gakko, Senko-ka, and Obayashi Campus of the University of the Sacred Heart.

JASH Committees

Hospitality Committee	JASH-AMASC Committee	Archives Committee	Study Group for the AMASC Congress (ad hoc)
Works as part of the network of AMASC hospitality	Aims to provide young JASH members the opportunities encouraging them to be interested and to be involved in the activities of JASH and AMASC	Collects, classifies, preserves and exhibits all historical material related to the Sacred Heart schools in Japan	Holds meetings to study and discuss the theme for the next congress

❖ Visit JASH Website for more information:
<https://www.jash316.com/>

